Filed: December 3, 2019

Special Processing Unit (SPU);
Attorney's Fees and Costs

Leah VaSahnja Durant, Law Offices of Leah V. Durant, PLLC, Washington, DC, for Petitioner.

Robert Paul Coleman, III, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On June 22, 2016, Courtney P. Binette ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") as a result of an influenza ("flu") vaccine she received on October 22, 2015. (Petition at 1). On April 2, 2019, a decision was issued by then Chief-Special Master Dorsey, awarding compensation to Petitioner in the amount of $178,314.92. (ECF No. 61).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated October 30, 2019, (ECF No. 66), requesting a total award of $90,301.95 (representing $86,818.70 in fees and $3,483.25 in costs). In accordance with General Order #9, Petitioner filed a signed statement stating that Petitioner has incurred out-of-pocket expenses in the amount of $406.39. (Id. at 2). Respondent reacted to the motion on November 13, 2019 indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 69). On November 14, 2019, Petitioner filed a reply requesting the Court award all fees requested. (ECF No. 70).

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award the following:

- 1. A lump sum in the amount of $90,301.95, representing reimbursement for attorney's fees and costs in the form of a check payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel and;
- 2. A lump sum in the amount of $406.39 representing reimbursement for costs in the form of a check payable to Petitioner.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
